

Interactive comment on “Fluoride in the drinking water of Pakistan and the possible risk of crippling fluorosis” by M. A. Tahir and H. Rasheed

Anonymous Referee #2

Received and published: 19 November 2012

1. Information about handling of non-detect data and frequency of detection are missing. 2. Summary of health-related observation in sampling area is missing. 3. Associate of health-related problems with occurrence of fluoride in water need to be conclusively established.

Interactive comment on Drink. Water Eng. Sci. Discuss., 5, 495, 2012.