The response Dear editor and referee, we are very grateful for those worthy comments, we would you like to publish our article in this valuable journal. We took these comments in our consideration and the response as the following: - 1) No one apply the risk health on surface water and groundwater samples (HQ) in Egypt we are the first. If you want to prove that work a research. Indeed, many of researcher carried out studies on the study area but each one has a view that is the scientific research. Each editing in the text sentence has been done. Last but not least we hope that our article to be published in your valuable journal.
